

St James's Church, Riding Mill
invites you to an illustrated talk

“The working life of an artist, designer, maker - creating works in architectural glass and on paper.”

by

Bridget Jones

St James's Church, Riding Mill,
Friday, 1st March 2024, 7.30pm

Tickets £10 per person (Includes a glass of wine or soft drink and nibbles)
Raffle

Tickets from Jenny Mathers, 01434 682486, jennymmathers@hotmail.com
Penny Macloughlin, 01434 682578, pennymacloughlin@yahoo.com

Since 1988, Bridget has been a North East-based artist who has worked on major commissions in public and private places. Most recently she designed three stained glass windows for the Church of the Holy Name, Jesmond, which were commissioned in celebration of the love and care given during the Pandemic of 2020 – 2022. Former commissions have included works for City Chambers Edinburgh and Ripon Cathedral.

Bridget and her husband, Rob, have lived in Riding Mill since 2017.